Three big games are on tap today among the amateur nines for the city title. The post-season series, the goal of all the teams in ton's Amateur Association will get under way today in the battles for the right to represent the city against the winner of the Richomnd series and a possible engagement with the winner of Baltimore's amateurs.

The seven leagues have been divided into two sections. The Marines, of the Government League; Machinists, of the Potomac League; Immanuel, of the Northwest Sunday. the seven leagues under Washing-

AT AMATEUR GAMES

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 1.—The motion of Armando Marsans, who jumped his contract with the Cincinnati Nationals, for the dissolution or modification of an injunction restraining him from playing with the St. Louis Federals, will be heard next Monday morning. The case was postponed today by Judge Dyer, of the United States district court. The point of the case hinges appen a claim of the Reds' management that Marsans was urged to return to Clineating. Marsans says he never received such notification. He says he has received no salary from the St. Louis Federals since he has been kept idle by the courts, though ne has borrowed lavishly from his present employers. Marsans declared in court that he was unwilling to play with Cincinnati.

EXPECT NEW RECORD IN DISTANCE EVENT

Swimmers Expected to Break the Record in Washington Club Race.

A record is expected to be set in the snnual distance swimming race held by the Washington Swimming Club today from Chain Bridge to the Aqueduct on account of the high water. More than thirty entries are expected to take the water shortly after 3 o'c'ock, and among them are some of the best of the swim-them are some of the best of the swimmers from Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington.

Four additional entries, received since the race was postponed from last Saturday, have swelled the entry list to forty-two, one of the largest fields to start in a similar affair in the history of aquatic sports on the Potomac.

The new entries include one from the Potomac Club, William W. Powell, and three from the Washington Swimming Club, B. H. Lambe, A. A. Crawford, and J. G. Beitzell.

The contestants and the canocists who will accompany them in the long race will meet at the Washington Canoe Club at 2 o'clock, in time to be towed up to the starting point by the club's launch.

The race will start promptly at 3 o'clock, and there will be no redress for the nonappearance of contestants at this hour.

A new l.'e-saving device, known as the lungmotor, and said to be more efficient than the pulmotor, will be demonstrated this afternoon by w. Leopold, of the Bureau of Mines, at today's races.

No Races Today.

The Potomac Boat Club decided not to hold its races today. Preparations are under way for the regatta to be held here next Saturday, and the eight-oared races on the card for today were officially called off.

CHESAPEAKE BEACH

Washington's Popular Playground FREE Special Attractions LITTLE ELSIE the champion lady high diver of the world, gives exhibitions each afternoon at 3 and each evening at 8:15 o'clock. The wonderful success of this act during the present week has resulted in this peerless diver being engaged for next week also. Words cannot adequately portray this wonderful exhibition. It is unlike any supposed similar set. She diver unlike any supposed similar act. She dives from a height of 90 feet into but four feet of water, located in a tank 30 feet distant from her ladder. This is a dive, not a jump, and is the only one of its kind in existence.

Another feature for next week will be an inimitable song and dance act every afternoon and evening, given by the famous

McCaslin Sisters

These popular favorites have played on all the leading circuits. Handsome girls, costumes, and best of dancing with latest songs. These acts alone are worth much more than the cost of the trip, and are absolutely FREE.

In addition you can enjoy all of the customary seashore attractions.

Free Dancing every afternoon. Excellent hotel and cafe service. Refreshments of all kinds.

You can leave the city, after the day's work is done, on the "Casino Limited," at 6:20 p. m. daily except Saturday and Sunday, and reach the Beach in 50 minutes, enjoy both high-class acts, the best dinner obtainable, free dancing, etc., and be home at usual bed time.
